Trinity Real Estate Solutions Expands Team With Business Development Manager

DALLAS (July 24, 2014) – Trinity Real Estate Solutions, Inc. (Trinity), a national provider of construction lending services and specialty inspection, proudly announces the expansion of its team through the addition of Philip Rodriguez, business development manager.

In this role, Rodriguez' primary responsibilities will include maximizing new and existing customer profitability, securing new business accounts, and establishing and maintaining relationships with clients – skills which he developed through the past six years in the real estate and mortgage industry.

“Rodriguez' hands-on industry background makes him a valuable asset to the Trinity team, giving him the ability to effectively form influential business connections,” said Brad Meyer, president and chief executive officer of Trinity. “His proficiency in developing relationships complements our goals of national expansion, and we are thrilled to have him on our team.”

Before joining Trinity, Rodriguez worked at several mortgage firms in D-FW as a mortgage advisor and mortgage loan originator, through which he developed a proficiency for forming business relationships and leveraging existing relationships to increase market share. During his work at a Lewisville mortgage company, he received the Start Achiever award six times for production year 2010 and three times for production year 2009. Rodriguez received his undergraduate degree from University of Texas – Pan American in 2008.
